The Sierra National Forest, located on the western slope of the central Sierra Nevada, is known for its spectacular mountain scenery and abundant natural resources. The Sierra National Forest encompasses more than 1.3 million acres between 900 and 13,986 feet in elevation. [Full Article] EN ESPAÑOL

Know before you GO!

Fire temp jobs are now available on usajobs.gov. Apply between January 11, 2016 to January 15.

Visit your Forest

Sierra National Forest

Spotlights

Forest Plan Revision

The Sierra National Forest is one of three Forests in California revising its Forest Plan using the new Planning Rule. Interested parties are encouraged to learn more and participate.

Travel Analysis

Dinkey Landscape Restoration Project/Collaborative

The Dinkey Collaborative is a group of stakeholders representing diverse public interests to implement the federal Collaborative Forest Landscape Restoration Program on the Dinkey Landscape.

[Image of a forest area]